Special Dispatch to The Star.

BOSTON, Mass., May 23.-Through ar rangements made by the United States forestry service, twenty-four Boy Scouts -eight from Washington, eight from Baltimore and eight from Boston-are to build this coming summer a ten-mile trail in a remote part of the White mountain mational forest. In return for this work the Boy Scouts will get paid at a rate equivalent to that which the government would have to pay for the construction of this trail were the work done by the regular force.

Midnight. 67; 2 a.m., 70; 4 a.m., 67; 6 a.m., 65; 8 a.m., 69; 10 a.m., 74; 12 noon. 76; 2 p.m., 79; 4 p.m., 79; 6 p.m., 77; 8 p.m., 72; 10 p.m., 67.

Highest, 89; lowest, 65. The trail which the Boy Scouts will build is intended primarily as a means of protection against fire. It will also be useful in making the White mountain national forest more accessible to tourists and prospective timber purchasers. The boys will be working ten miles from the nearest town, Gilead, Me. They will camp in the valley of Wild river, a tributary of the Androscoggin

The Boy Scouts will report to Gorham, N. H., June 18. The sleeping tents and cooking tent will be set up in a circle as far back in the woods as it is feasible to bring in supplies. The trail Buffalo, II work will consist in clearing out the Cincinnati, work will consist in clearing out the brush grading the tread of the trail and building the necessary culverts and bridges. In cases where rock needs to be broken up the forest officer who will have charge of this project will use dynamits. Galveston, Tex. Indianapolis, Ind.

BUSY WEEK CONFRONTS THE DISTRICT HEADS

Tomorrow will inaugurate what prom ises to be one of the busiest weeks ever trict Commissioners Adverse court rulings in the Kalbfus and the Sunday closing cases, together with the opinion handed down by Judge Pugh in Police Court annulling the reently promulgated auction regulation are some of the more important matters slated to come up for consideration con cerning which the District heads expect adopt definite policies of procedur before the close of the week.

In addition, there is the newly organ ized campaign by business men to obtain reduction in telephone rates which the Commissioners, sitting as members of the public utilities commission, probably will be called upon to consider.

Problems Slated for Tomorrow.

Because of the absence from the city esterday of Conrad H. Syme, corporation counsel, the Commissioners did not begin consideration of the legal problems confronting them as a result of the unfavorable court rulings, but they expect to get at the task bright and early

The Kalbfus case probably will be the The Kalbfus case probably will be the first to be taken up. It is considered practically assured that the Commissioners will decide to prefer charges against Kalbfus as soon as he has been restored to his former position as a member of the board of assistant assessors.

The plan most likely to be followed in connection with the Sunday closing decision will be to carry this case to the District Court of Appeals, where effort will be made to obtain early action in the matter.

ne matter. With respect to Judge Pugh's ruling

Telephone Subscribers Protest.

The Commissioner also stated that the ublic utilities commission would be glad to receive representatives of the newly formed Telephone Subscribers' Protective Association in connection with its pro test against annulment by the Chesa peake and Potomac Telephone Company of the flat rate contracts. The commission has already ruled that this rate is a discriminatory one. The association wants the rate continued until the commission is ready to investigate the subject of telephone charges generally.

WEATHER.

Fair Today and Probably Monday; Light Variable Winds.

For the District of Columbia, Maryand and Virginia, fair today and prob ably Monday: light variable winds.

The lake storm has passed to the Canadian martitime provinces, having caused rains in the last twenty-four hours in the interior of New York and northern New England, and it has been followed by rising pressure and cooler weather in the region of the great lakes, the upper Ohio valley and the north Atlantic states. An extensive area of low barometric pressure prevalls over the plateau and Rocky mountain regions, with its center over Utah and Idaho. It is causing over-over Utah and Idaho. It is causing over-cast weather over western districts, with local rains over the Rocky mountain and plateau regions, the Pacific states, Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. Temperatures continue mild for the season over the south and middle states east of the Rocky mountains, while cooler weather prevails on the Pacific slope.

The indications are that the weather will be unsettled with local showers Sunday and Monday over the northern states from the great lakes westward, and in the Rocky mountain and northern plateau regions. In the eastern and southern states the weather will be generally fair Sunday and Monday.

erally fair Sunday and Monday.

No important temperature changes are indicated for any part of the country during the next two days.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be moderate variable, mostly west; on the middle Atlantic, south Atlantic and gulf coasts light to moderate variable; on the lower lakes light to moderate variable; on the upper lakes moderate variable, mostly east and southeast.

HONOR PAID J. L. GRIFFITH.

Body Placed Aboard the Carmania for Conveyance Here.

LIVERPOOL, May 23.—The body of the late John L. Griffith, United States onsul general in London, was carried on board the Carmania today for convey ance to New York, after having rested in state since yesterday in the town hall of Liverpool. The only other foreigner ever accorded this honor was the late Liverpool. Mayor Gaynor of New York.

The lord mayor of Liverpool, with a strong detachment of police, escorted the body from the town hall to the dock.

FRANK P. WOODS. man of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee.

"I believe the people are disappointed legislative and executive. It has affordfeared. It has injured agriculture everywhere and stagnated all productive and industrial activity. It has been destrucconcerning the auction regulations the Commissioners, in all probability, will decide to appeal this case also. Commissioner Newman last night expressed the opinion that the case would be carried to a higher tribunal. tive and discouraging, and not constructhe interests of everybody except the American citizens. I feel sure that the American people will show their disap-proval this fall by electing republicans to Congress in many districts now represented by democrats."
